

LAINIE'S ANGELS

2008 Annual Report

ABOUT US

Lainie's Angels is a national not-for-profit organization that creates family support groups in institutions that treat children suffering from cancer and blood disorders.

The cornerstone of the support group is the Parent Advocate, a mom or a dad who has been through the experience of caring for an extremely ill child. Through funding from Lainie's Angels, the Parent Advocate is trained to work with the doctors, hospital staff, insurance companies, and other groups typically involved in the child's treatment. The Parent Advocate consults with the family, offers their experience and provides a shoulder to lean on.

In addition to direct peer support, the Parent Advocate program puts families in touch with other parents whose children have suffered from cancer and blood disorders.

Lainie's Angels peer support model is unique, delivering an unprecedented element of trust and understanding into the health care experience. We invite you to learn more by visiting www.lainiesangels.org

OUR MISSION

Lainie's Angels will address an important, widespread and currently unmet human need – the need families of children with cancer and blood disorders have for ongoing support.

Lainie's Angels will provide this support by creating and sustaining Family Support Groups within the institutions that treat these children.

Lainie's Angels will speak out publicly on those families' behalf to make sure their neighbors across the nation understand their need.
